

I am very concerned
by the actions of
Sinclair
Headquarters to air
an anti-Kerry piece,
'Stolen Honor',
without plans to air
a pro-Kerry piece.
It's a shock to see
how media can seemingly make their own rules without having to answer to the people. This is not because I need to see a pro-Kerry
piece, I prefer to
just watch the
debates, make up my own mind, and leave
it at that.
Truthfully I'm
frightened that the media is allowed to have so much power
without being held accountable for the responsibility that they have, I feel,
especially in
politics, to remain
unbiased.
